GEORGE T. ARNOLD

George Arnold is being honored for 25 years of service to Potomac State College as a building service worker, presently working in Science Hall.

George was born in Keyser and attended New Creek Elementary School and Keyser High School.

George has worked for the Bartlett Tree Company, Paul Miller's horse farm, and the Mineral County School System.

He has been employed at Potomac State College as a security guard, laborer, and custodian, in addition to his current position.

His family includes wife Delcie; children Missy and Nick; son-in-law Chuck; and grandsons Randy and Ryan.

JACK L. REYNOLDS

Jack Reynolds is being honored for 25 years of service to Potomac State College as Professor of History and Social Sciences.

Jack was born in Charleston, W.Va. He earned his bachelor of science degree in education from Phillips University in 1968. He then earned a master of arts degree in history from the University of Oklahoma in 1970. Jack has also studied at Oklahoma State University and West Virginia University.

Jack gained work experience in the retail clothing industry, with the Pittsburgh Paint Company, and in the United States Air Force.

At Potomac State, Jack has been head baseball coach, assistant football coach, head resident of Memorial Hall, and coordinator of the history unit. He has served as secretary/treasurer of the Coastal Conference (football).

He is a member of the West Virginia Historical Association, a member of FACDIS, and president of the Polish Pines Men's Golf Association.

HAZEL A. RIGGLEMAN

Hazel Riggleman is retiring from her position as building service worker in the Potomac State College library.

Born in Ridgeville, Hazel attended Antioch Elementary School, first through sixth grade; New Creek School, seventh and eighth grades; and Keyser High School, earning a diploma in May 1950. Hazel also earned a certificate from Catherman's Business School in the fall semester of 1952.

Before her employment at Potomac State, Hazel was employed at G.C. Murphy Company, So-Rite Garment Factory, Keyser Garment Factory, and Automated Packaging System, Inc.

At PSC, she worked as a Custodian II from 1975 to 1980, and returned to PSC in 1988 as a building service worker, the position she presently holds.

Hazel was awarded Mother of the Year by the Antioch United Methodist Church. She is a member of the Antioch United Methodist Ladies Fellowship.

Hazel's family includes husband Roy; son Randall (in Colorado Springs); daughter Sherri French; and grandchildren Charles, Rachale, and Jared.

"After I retire, I'm really looking forward to having more time for my husband, children, grandchildren, and also my mother. I hope to get back into previous hobbies of gardening, canning, sewing, church work, and some volunteer work," Hazel said.

RICHARD A. SMITH

Richard Smith is honored tonight for 50 years of service to Potomac State College. He holds the longest employment record at Potomac State.

Born in Keyser, Rich attended school at Howard High School in Piedmont. In 1945 he joined the college cafeteria staff part-time after school and on weekends. He became a full-time employee in the cafeteria in 1947.

Besides his job in the college cafeteria, Richard has also worked in the Student Union, as a custodian in the Administration Building, and as a security officer. He is currently Campus Police Officer I.

Rich served in the U.S. Army from 1951 to 1953, serving in Korea for 14 months as a truck driver and also in an intelligence reconnaissance platoon.

He is a member of Potomac Lodge No. 41, Masonic Lodge, of which he is a past master. He also holds membership in Thotmes Temple of the Shrine, Fairmont.

Richard is a member of the Keyser VFW, the Washington-Smith Post of the American Legion, and Janes United Methodist Church.

Smith comes from a large family of seven brothers and four sisters. Richard has three children: Andrew, Allen, and Karen; and is a proud grandfather of seven grandchildren.

An avid softball pitcher, Rich has played in the Cumberland Recreation League and the Rocking Chair League. He loves to go rabbit hunting with his beagles, and he is an excellent ping pong player.

Richard's rapport and ease in dealing with young people have endeared him to thousands of former students.

WANDA L. TWYMAN

Wanda Lee Twyman is being honored tonight for 25 years of service to Potomac State College as a food service assistant.

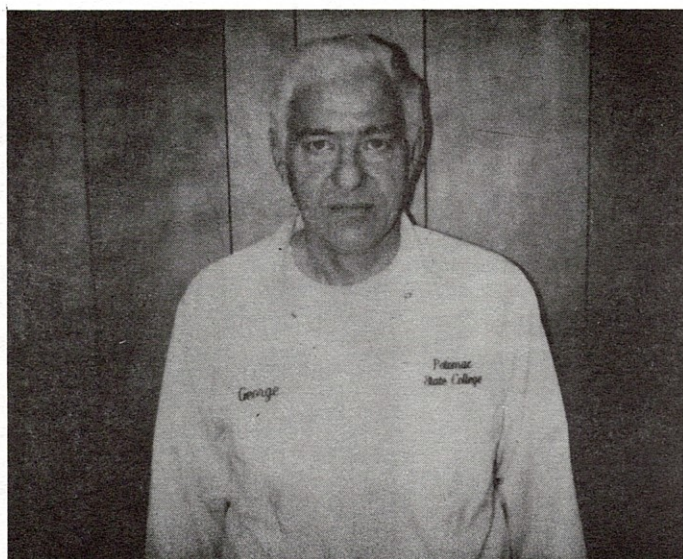

Wanda was born in Petersburg, where she attended Petersburg Grade School and Petersburg Junior High School.

Before coming to Potomac State, Wanda worked at the Petersburg Potomac Motel, the Petersburg Drive-In, and in housekeeping.

She has been the morning cook at the college throughout her career at PSC.

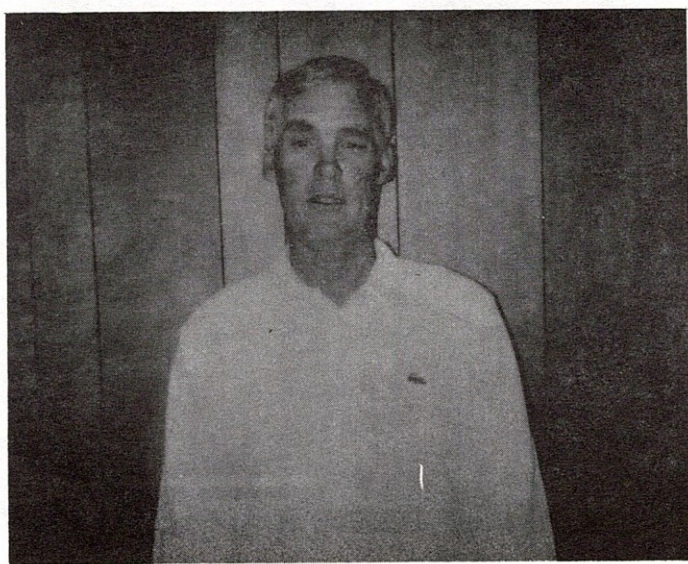

Wanda is a member of the Ladies Auxiliary, Washington-Smith Post 152 and the Ladies Auxiliary, Post 5957, V.F.W.

Wanda has five daughters -- Barbara, Gwen, Rhonda, Llwendolyn, and Sheila -- and seven grandchildren.
